

CAP Training

Real Solutions for Real Needs

The Computer/Electronic Accommodations Program (CAP), established by the Department of Defense (DoD), is the Federal government's centrally funded accommodations program. CAP provides assistive technology and related services, free of charge, for individuals with visual, hearing, dexterity, and cognitive disabilities.

Join Us for a Free CAP Training Seminar

*Real Solutions for Real Needs:
Innovation in Accommodation*

Two times and locations available on November 10, 2004

9:30AM-11:30 AM

VA Medical Center John Cochran Division
Education Wing, Room 141-142
915 North Grand Street, St. Louis, MO 63106

2:00PM - 4:00 PM

VA Medical Center Jefferson Barracks Division
Building 2, Second Floor, Room 212
1 Jefferson Barracks Drive, St. Louis, MO 63125

Agenda

- CAP Mission & Scope
- Disability Policy & Programs
- Employment Initiatives
- eCAP: The Accommodation Process

Please RSVP to Claudette.Tan@tma.osd.mil indicating your preference by Friday November 5, 2004.

Please let us know your accommodation needs (i.e. Sign Language Interpreter, Large Print, Braille).

Hosted by the Department of Veterans Affairs.

Computer/Electronic Accommodations
Program